A No. 1 Back From Another World's Jaunt
—Tells Very Thrilling Stories
of His Travels.

A No. 1 has struck town. This clever, energetic and undoubtedly a man who has traveled more in the last year than any other man in the world, within the three miles of Daytona, whom he will remain for some time.

In the little stand opposite the Atlantic Pharmacy, just across the street from the station, stands a group of men, and among them, a man who is the center of attraction. He is a man of about 35 years of age, with a high forehead, dark hair, and a mustache. He is dressed in a dark suit, and is looking towards the camera with a slight smile.

He is a man of the world, and has traveled in all parts of the world. He has been to the North Pole, and has been to the South Pole. He has been to the top of Mount Everest, and has been to the bottom of the Mariana Trench. He has been to the most remote and dangerous parts of the world, and has returned with stories that are truly amazing.

GOV. BROWARD GOES SOUTH

Made an inspection of the Dredger at Miami for the Everglade Work.

Governor Napoleon B. Broward, passed through Daytona night before last en route to Miami, where he is expected to arrive tomorrow. He is accompanied by his family, and a large retinue of officials. He is on his way to inspect the work being done on the Everglades, and to see the dredger which is being used to clear the land.

SOME SEABREEZE HAPPENINGS

Some of Interest from the Peninsula.

Several interesting incidents have occurred in the vicinity of the Everglades. A large number of people have been seen in the area, and there has been a great deal of activity. It is believed that the government is planning to build a large dam in the area, and that this will have a great effect on the land.

WORLD KNOWN TRAVELER HERE

A No. 1 Back From Another World's Jaunt
—Tells Very Thrilling Stories
of His Travels.

A No. 1 has struck town. This clever, unique, and undoubtedly a man who has traveled more miles than any other human being, is again within the thresholds of Daytona, where he will remain for three months.

In the little stand opposite the Atwood Pharmacy, sat this unique character Sunday afternoon, while a group of interested men and boys stood listening to the thrilling stories, which this man has recounted in his miles of travel.

It is hard at the time the News representative accosted him, was an Irish potato which he was carving in the image of a face. A No. 1 has a wonderful memory and as each person put in their appearance he remembered their names, recalling some occurrence at the time he was here three years ago. Every one gave A No. 1 the glad hand and on the streets today he is still relating his experiences. The vicinity of the post-office is proving a popular hang out for him.

Perhaps this individual should be classed as a hobo, although he is a traveler of world wide reputation for he is willing at all times to earn an honest dollar. This party is known in every section of the United States and in foreign countries. He has been beating his way on railroads since he was eleven years of age now he is thirty-three. His record is to be found carved on a post opposite the postoffice building. He is short of stature, quick, with an energetic movement which shows him to be a hustler. He is of French and German descent, and was born in San Francisco.

A No. 1, as he is generally known, has never revealed his real name to any one, and he goes by this unique title because he is the champion train beater in the United States. He started this title by beating his way, in company with a reporter for the National Police Gazette in 1894, when they traveled from New York to San Francisco without spending a cent for transportation, and covering the distance in eleven days and six hours. He received a medal from Richard K. Fox, editor of the Police Gazette, and also $1,000 in cash, for making this trip.

A memorandum book, which he carries, shows that he has traveled something like 475,000 miles, about 95,000 of which was by water. His entire traveling expenses during his career has

Made an Inspection of the Dredges at Miami for the Everglade Work.

Governor Napoleon B. Broward, passed through Daytona night before last enroute to Miami, where he inspected the dredges recently built, which will be used in reclamation of the Everglades. The work of this great undertaking will shortly commence under the supervision of the Internal Improvement Association.

Governor Broward, it is expected, will pass through the city this afternoon on the return trip to Tallahassee. In the party with him are several state officials.

amounted to something like $8.00, of which 15 cents was spent during the past year. The distance traveled this year was 18,455 miles.

He has not been in school since his 11th year, but he is by no means ignorant. He reads and speaks, fluently, four different languages and many pages of his memorandum book are written in German. Personally he is a man of good habits, does not gamble or steal, nor does he associate with ordinary tramps.

He is an expert at carving and with his pocket knife carves out funny heads and faces from small, fresh potatoes, which when they dry, wrinkle and present a most grotesque appearance. The potatoes are works of art and well worth preserving for they will last for years. These he sells for small sums, paying his expenses, but he never pays out anything for railroad or steamboat fare.

He says that he is saving his money and when he has $3000 ahead he will go to the old country to take up the work of being a sculptor.

The Daily News is for sale at Clark's and Barnes' news stands.

"A Breezy Time," is built for laughing purposes only. After seeing "A Breezy Time," and can't laugh, see a doctor. At Opera House, Saturday, Dec. 9.

Hugh Brucey, who for several months has occupied a position at the Russell Pharmacy, is now meeting customers at the Atwood Pharmacy.

The contemplated change in the firm of Moore Brothers has not materialized and the business will be conducted under the same name as in the past.

Miss Jennie Coleman, of Marietta, Wis., who stopped off in Daytona to visit friends and relatives, enroute to the Isle of Pines with Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Wall, is ill with appendicitis at the home of Mrs. Coleman, on South Ridgewood. The crisis is now past and the patient is on the way to recovery.

SOME SEABREEZE HAPPENINGS

Items of Interest from the Peninsula. School Entertainment at Opera House a Success.

Successful in every particular was the entertainment given at Seabreeze, Friday evening, by the teachers and pupils of the various rooms. The Wilma's Opera House was packed early and there was a fair attendance.

The order of the entertainment was a flag drill; The Little Grandmothers; The Five Fiddlers; violin and piano duet; Mother Goose and Her Children; and Cindarella, in a play of four acts.

The entire performance was carried out in a very creditable manner, and the teachers wish to thank everyone who assisted in the matter. Another entertainment will be given about the middle of January.

Mrs. Mary Mallett and daughter are entertaining Mrs. Hatch at their home on Valley street. She will remain the entire season.

Col. and Mrs. S. H. Perry, who have been spending the past six months with friends here, left the latter part of last week for their home in New Orleans. Col. Perry is of the opinion that Seabreeze has a fine future as a summer resort and when he returns at the end of the winter, he will bring several of his relatives and friends.

Among the recent prominent arrivals on the peninsula are Mr. and Mrs. Olds, parents of R. E. Olds, inventor of the Oldsmobile machine. They are occupying a pleasant suite of rooms in the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. John Allen. The young Mr. Olds is away at the present time and if he does not enter the races in January he will be here to witness them.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haynes and the latter's mother, Mrs. Rumsey, have rented the Hancey cottage on Pine street. They will arrive on the 15th inst.

Mrs. Elma G. Stevens is occupying her new cottage and she is exceptionally well pleased with the place.

Miss S. E. Russell has arrived for the season much to the pleasure of her friends. The Dixie Lodge will open the 15th under her management. Several of her former guests have engaged rooms, among them being Mrs. and Miss Wyatt, of Chattanooga, Tenn.

Little Herbert Mills Better.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mills, will be pleased to learn that their little son, Herbert, who was seriously injured last Friday by being run over by a team, is progressing favorably and that there is a great improvement in his condition. Dr. Atwood thinks now that it will not be necessary to perform an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gailor, returned yesterday from New Smyrna, where they have been for several days past.

GOING TO THE EXTENSION.

More Laborers Pass Through Daytona Bound to the Keys—Camps in Good Condition.

Loaded in four cars of the Pennsylvania Railroad System, some two hundred and fifty laborers for the Key West extension passed through Daytona on a special, about 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, enroute to the scene of operations. No slow-down of the special was made, and the train passed through here at fine speed.

Now at work on the extension are over 2,400 men, and the Miami papers say that the reports to the effect that they are experiencing great hardships is greatly exaggerated. The laborers are quartered in large tents and the sanitary condition of the surroundings is very good.

Birchwood Boat Gets First Prize.

Messrs. J. H. Allen and E. T. Conrad, comprising the racing committee of the Halifax River Yacht Club, have awarded the first prize in the Thanksgiving races to the Birchwood boat, and the second prize to White Streak. The Pellet boat, it is said, did not abide by the rules of the committee.

Opera House, Wednesday Evening.

A. W. Wyndham, with the Imperial Kinetoscope illustrating the scenes of the Russian-Japanese war, will appear at the Opera House on Wednesday evening, Dec. 6th. Mr. Wyndham spent many years in a tour of the world, gathering these pictures and the performance promises to be well worth the admission price. Manager Osborne is fortunate in securing this booking.

The calendar of the Palmetto Club stated that the meetings would be held on Orange avenue but as the rooms are not yet in readiness, the Club will meet next Thursday afternoon at the Opera House.

The Florida East Coast Automobile Association had a force of men and teams removing the wrecks from the beach speedway, and all is now clear and in fine condition for the races.

Robert I. Wall arrived from Chicago Tuesday, where he has been on business. He expects to start for the Isle of Pines Wednesday, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Mason. Mrs. Wall and the children will remain here until Miss Jennie Coleman has sufficiently recovered from her illness to accompany them.

Asa Paine and family went to Spruce Creek in their touring car, Wednesday, for a fishing trip, and Mr. Paine reports the roads to be in good condition, excepting in a few places, where washed out by the heavy rains during the summer. Twenty-five dollars would repair the worst places.

TWO MILES A MINUTE.

Young Vanderbilt, it is Said, Will Spring a Car That Can Make a Mile in 30 Seconds This Winter.

Rumors are freely circulated nowadays in regard to the intentions of William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., in regard to the Ormond-Daytona meet of this year, says the New York American. Two years ago Mr. Vanderbilt won sterling honors by his great mile, made in 39 seconds. The world stood aghast, and cries "fake" were heard. But the record was finally accepted and last year much faster time was accomplished than 39, and the world no longer cried against the acceptance of the time made. Mr. Vanderbilt did not, however, prevail last year. His car was not up to the standard of other cars at the meet. Rumors now have it that Mr. Vanderbilt is determined upon regaining his lost honors, and that he will go to Ormond prepared to wrest from scores of others on like bent, the two-mile a minute mark so much coveted in America and in Europe. Just what the plans of Mr. Vanderbilt may be have not been revealed, but rumors credit him with all sorts of projects. Rumors are not always to be credited, but good sportsmen will welcome the news that so eminent a sportsman is again to be in the hunt, and will prepare to give him battle royal for the greatest honors which can be secured by an automobile driver today.

Both England, France and Germany will send their best drivers and the fastest cars which money and skill combined can build, to give battle to America's foremost sportsman. Small wonder, then, that hundreds and thousands are preparing to journey to the sunny South and the wave-packed beach, to witness these grand international struggles.

Rooming Clerk Trudeau, of the Hotel Ormond, is authority for the statement that spectators for the meet promise to be more plentiful this year than ever, as engagements for rooms are being made in such numbers today as to warrant an assertion that everything will be taken before he starts south on January 1. There was a great scarcity of accommodations last season for the meet and when it is known that one party from Washington has asked for thirty rooms, some idea of the magnitude of this travel to the southward, may be gained.

A Hymn for Today

A MIGHTY Fortress IS OUR GOD

By Martin Luther

DURING his life of contention with the Roman Catholic church Martin Luther, the famous reformer, found time to translate the Bible and to write numerous epistles, pamphlets, hymns, etc. His most famous religious song, given below, the German title of which is "Eine Feste Burg ist Unser Gott," was written in 1527. It has been translated many times. Our version is that of F. H. Heide.

A MIGHTY fortress is our God,
A bulwark never falling;
Our helper in the flood,
Of mortal ills prevailing.
For still our ancient foe,
Doth seek to work us woe;
His craft and power are great,
And armed with cruel hate,
On earth is not his equal.

Did we in our own strength confide,
Our striving would be losing;
Were not the right man on our side,
The man of God's own choosing.
Dost ask who that may be?
Christ Jesus, it is he,
Lord Sabaoth his name,
From age to age the same,
And he must win the battle.

And though this world, with devils filled,
Should threaten to undo us;
We will not fear, for God hath willed
His truth to triumph through us.
The prince of darkness grim,
We tremble not for him;
His rage we can endure,
For lo, his doom is sure—
One little word shall fell him!

That word above all earthly powers,
No thanks to them—abideth;
The spirit and the gifts are ours,
Through him who with us sideth.
Let goods and kindred go,
This mortal life also;
The body they may kill,
God's truth abideth still,
His kingdom is forever.

A Poem for Today

A HAPPY LIFE

By Sir Henry Wotton

HOW happy is he born and taught,
That serveth not another's will,
Whose armor is his honest thought,
And simple truth his utmost skill;

Whose passions not his masters are,
Whose soul is still prepared for death,
Not tied unto the world with care,
Of public fame, of private breath;

Who envies none that chance doth raise
Or vice; who never understood
How deepest wounds are given by praise;
Nor rules of state, but rules of good;

Who hath his life from rumors freed,
Whose conscience is his strong retreat,
Whose state can neither flatterers feed
Nor ruin make accusers great;

Who God doth late and early pray
More of his grace than gifts to lead,
And entertains the harmless day
With a well chosen book or friend.

This man is freed from servile bands
Of hope to rise or fear to fall;
Lord of himself, though not of lands,
And, having nothing, yet hath all.

Monkeys at Play.
"Nothing is more instructive," said the zoo keeper to a Baltimore Herald reporter, "than to watch young monkeys at play. These interesting creatures investigate everything with insatiable curiosity. They do things startling enough to convince me that they have almost human minds."
"I had in India a young monkey that learned to put the key in the lock and unlock the chain that fastened it to a pole. Near this monkey there always lay a brush with a handle that unscrewed. In time the monkey learned to unscrew the handle and then to screw it in again."
"A friend of mine had a monkey that he kept chained just out of reach of the fourth floor. This monkey learned to draw strips from newspapers, roll them into long papers and light them in the flames."

A Colossal Idol.
Two miles from Kamakura and about twenty from Yokohama, in Japan, on a terrace near the temple sits the most gigantic idol in the world. It is the image of a deity and dates from the reign of the Emperor Shomu, who died A. D. 748. The dimensions of this idol are colossal. His height from the base of the lotus flower upon which he sits to the top of his head is sixty-three and a half feet. The face is sixteen feet in length and nine and a half feet wide, the eyes are three feet nine inches from corner to corner, the eyebrows five and a half feet and the ears eight and a half feet. The chest is twenty feet in depth, and the middle finger is exactly five feet long. The fifty-six leaves of the lotus throne are each ten feet long and six feet wide.

Burning of the Vanities.
Savonarola once uttered his strong condemnation of luxury by collecting a large number of articles which he regarded as vanities during the carnival to be burnt in the Piazza della Signoria, Florence, on Shrove Tuesday, 1497. In this "burning of the vanities" were included fancy costumes, carnival masks, false hair and rouge pots, cards and dice boxes, books and pictures, together with casts and valuable sculptures of questionable character. Built up into a pyramid of seven stages, signifying the seven deadly sins, the pile was burnt by lighting fagots placed in the center, while children standing round sang hymns before the assembled crowds.

Their son, last night in relating several stories, told of a very exciting, but miraculous incident in which his life was saved by a fox terrier. Mr. Patterson says that he lost his balance on a trestle near his home, and fell to the river nearly fifty feet below with his dog. He said that he was overcome by the steep fall and that the terrier dragged him ashore, thereby saving him from a watery grave.

Automobilists Beware

Now that the season is approaching marshal Zuber wants to advise the automobile public relative to the danger of speeding their machines beyond the ten mile limit as prescribed by ordinance. He says that he has noticed several already taking the liberty to go at a pretty fair rate, but they must keep within the bounds of the law or arrest will follow.

Mrs. E. E. Dering, of Darlington, Wis., is renewing old acquaintances, having recently arrived here for another season. Mrs. Dering is stopping at The Bennett.

Rice Eaters and Wheat Eaters.
Some writer once classified the population of the world into two groups: the rice eaters and the wheat eaters. With rice goes fish, and with wheat goes meat. Chemical analysis shows that each of these combinations forms a perfect diet, embracing all the necessary food elements. But, while the wheat and meat diet requires an elaborate and expensive preparation to make it ready for use, the rice and fish diet is cheap and simple. It needs no slaughter houses, mills or bakeries, with dozens of other adjunctive necessities. Fish and rice can be prepared for food by the simplest processes with in fifteen minutes after they are brought to the pot. And so the rice eaters are able to live on a few pennies a day and yet thrive and become big and populous nations.—Kansas City Journal.

For People of Thirty.

"If you reach the age of thirty without having had any serious illness you will be likely to live till seventy or more," said a physician. "All the old folk I know reached thirty without any alarming maladies scored against them." "From thirty on all you need do is to be careful, to observe a few simple rules of health. I should say that these rules are simple and good:
"Eat fruit at breakfast and at lunch.
"Avoid pastry, muffins, hot bread and buttered toast.
"Eat potatoes only once a day.
"Walk at least four miles in the open air daily.
"Do not drink tea or coffee.
"Take a daily bath and wash the face with warm water before retiring.
"Sleep eight hours."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

A Bran Pie.

Alfonso, king of Aragon, attended by several of his courtiers, called on a jeweler to inspect some of his wares. No sooner had he left the shop than the proprietor came running after him and complained that he had been robbed of a diamond of great value. The king returned to the shop and ordered a large vessel filled with bran to be brought and placed on the counter. He then commanded each of his courtiers to insert his hand closed and then withdraw it open. He was the first to begin, and after all had had their turn he asked the jeweler to empty the vessel on the counter. By this means the diamond was recovered and nobody was disgraced.

The Pygmy Hippopotamus.

One of the animals least known to the outside world is the pygmy hippopotamus of west Africa. It is just what its name implies, a pygmy hippopotamus. It is much smaller than the common hippopotamus, being no larger than an ordinary or fair sized bear. It differs somewhat from the common hippo in the character of its teeth, and instead of spending its time in the rivers and lakes in large herds it wanders about through the jungles singly or in pairs, much after the manner of swine in search of mast.

Healthy Mentality.

A large, healthy, normal mind will see the good in another much more quickly than the evil, but a narrow, feeble mind has an eye only for faults for the unlovely and the crooked. The clear, the beautiful, the true and the unambiguous are too large for its vision. It delights in tearing down or destroying, but it is incapable of up building.—London Answers.

The Ready Repartee.

"This book," began the agent who had pushed his way into the office. "Don't want it?" snapped the busy merchant. "I wish I knew some way to keep you fellows out of here."
"This book tells you. Buy one," Philadelphia Ledger.

Ambitious.

"Do you think, professor," inquired the musically ambitious youth, "that I can ever do anything with my voice?"
"Well," was the cautious reply, "it may come in handy in case of fire."

The Start of the Race.

Dorothy—Say, auntie, is religion something to wear? Aunt Julia—My dear, why do you ask such foolish questions? Dorothy—Cause papa said you used your religion for a cloak.

TERSLEY LOCAL ITEMS...

Leonard Giff, left yesterday for De-Land on a business trip.

W. E. Linn and family are in the holidays on a visit to E. A. Richards.

Found and time. There may have come by moving property and putting for this ad.

Dr. J. H. Armstrong, the Jacksonville
eye specialist, arrived in the city Saturday evening on business.

The location for a new cottage for J. A. C. Morris on Bay Lane, near the bank and the work of erecting the building is to be pushed rapidly ahead.

E. G. Phillips of Minneapolis, Minn., expects to arrive here about Dec. 20th,
with three Wisconsin touring cars for use in the luxury business at Daytona.

The inclement weather of Sunday retarded churchmen from noon exhibit, and
the service at the various places of worship were not so festive as anticipated
had the weather been at the best.

L. C. McCann has created the still property and still shortly open a first-class restaurant. Mr. McCann is an experienced caterer and built from Mackinac, Miami. Smith & Thomas created the menu.

Farmers report that their new fields
in need of rain and the showers of the past few days mark the opportune time.
Daytona and its suburbs have
many well kept gardens and they look
exceptionally well.

A sub-point in the southern section of the city has been laid, and the marshall is speaking to a New representative who says that the people should look to their country and better look out for their entire.

An old copy of the New York Opus
a paper devoted to morality, education,
temperance and pure literature, was brought to this office yesterday by T. W.
Hall, who found it while touring about the Jacksonville home. The Opus bore the date of October 27, 1849. It was a sixteen page paper in newspaper
form and the typographical appearance
looked excellent.

Joseph P. Greaves, manager of the Hotel Astor in St. Augustine, has returned to that city from a two weeks'
touring and fishing expedition at Manner Haven, with several of his friends.
Mr. Greaves, with his family, has kindly agreed to give the people here a treat for the opening, which will occur
on Saturday, Dec. 9. The Astor Hotel is enjoying particularly good results from the tourist season in St.
Augustine.

ALL ALONG THE EAST COAST ...

Pathetic, Pungent, Painted and Philosophical—People's Peculiarities
Pensively and Practically Portrayed.

Frightened by Motor Boat.
A team owned by Mrs. Popple found itself in a predicament opposite the Hollis River Yacht Club, Saturday afternoon, looking away from its increase and breaking the shells in the hurry in a short but spirited encounter.
The horse became startled by the
pulling of the engine in Harry Thomp-
son's motor boat.

On the Way and the Lady.
Gardwell was in love with a widow, Mrs. William Lewis. One day, when he went to call the lady, sitting in the window, saw him approaching and he dressed the servant to say that she was not at home. When the maid returned she said the statement was untrue on her account.

"Mrs. Lewis, sir, is not at home,"
said the startled maid.
"I did not ask for Mrs. Lewis," was the calm, stammering reply.
"I don't know where she will be back," urged the maid.
"Neither do I," philosophically replied Gardwell, "but it is going to wait ill she comes back, so please make me
a cup of tea."

He did wait, he got the tea, and he married the widow.

Why the Table Knife Was Hounded.
Table knives used the ancient century always had sharply pointed shanks, a feature which was not days when a knife was at once a good looking knife and table knife and fork combined. The rounded end was introduced by King Philip. It happened that Cardinal Richelieu was compelled to attend the table of the King of England, a man of noble manners, who
at the close of the meal proceeded to use his knife as a toothpick. This was the end of every knife in the presence of the cardinal, and no great loss to the influence that the famous man adopted all over the country.

Travel in the Old Days.
Before the days of the railroad travel
from Philadelphia to New York was very rough. The passengers and attendants without the process. John Baker, with the wagon, and out Monday from his house at the edge of the forest, the place in Strawberry alley, and drove the wagon day to New York, where Francis Holmes resided, and the passengers and goods being shifted into the wagon of Isaac Henderson, he taken from the "Shanty man," where Noble Fitzsimmons, with a load well suited, will take them and take them to New York that night.

William's Misadventure.
"Your son Willie seems to have got over his little cold," said a doctor.
"I have seen him lately how low standing up to a man."
"Yes, after some of medicine has
for his strong 11 pound man."
"What was it?"
"I told him he had a magnificent
chest," Newark News.

The Open Fireproof.
I have seen responsibility and an ability grouped over the fire light stove.
I have seen "fire and intelligence" believing over the register, but I have seen even less intelligence in a family fire where the stove was not heated by the flame of an open fireplace.
—W. W. Hutton.

Stagnation.
Mamma—1 hope Willie didn't tell a lie when he said he had been at the game. Aunt—Not at all. When I discovered that he had been at the game he looked at Papa and said, "I don't know, mamma, but I hope I don't."—Boston Transcript.

1,000 Reporters!

The Daily News wants 1,000 reporters. No, this is not a joke. We really want them, and we won't be happy until we get them.

In this world's 711, Daily News wants every person, male and female, 18 years of age and over, in Daytona, and its environs, to get on the staff of the paper. The Daily News wants every scrap of local news that is worth printing to appear in its columns. The best way to get it is to ask the people who know about the news to send it to it.

So if you know of anything that has happened, or is about to happen, tell the City Editor about it as soon as you can.

Let every man and woman, youth and maid in and around Daytona become a reporter. The Daily News.

Dr. E. H. Armstrong, the Jacksonville
eye specialist, arrived in the city Satur-
day evening on business.

The foundation for a new cottage for J. D. C. Morris, on Ivy Lane, has been laid and the work of erecting the building will be pushed rapidly ahead.

E. G. Choate, of Minneapolis, Minn.,
expects to arrive here about Dec. 30th,
with three Winton touring cars for use in the lively business at Daytona.

The inclement weather of Sunday retarded church goes to some extent, and
the service at the various places of worship were not so largely attended
had the weather been at the best.

L. C. McCann has rented the Gill property and will shortly open a first-class restaurant. Mr. McCann is an experienced caterer and hails from Mackinaw Island. Smith & Thomas rented the store.

Truckers report that they were badly
in need of rain and the showers of the past two days came at the opportune time. Daytona and its suburbs have many well kept gardens and they look
exceptionally well.

A sub pound in the southern section of the city has been built, and the marshal in speaking to a News representative says that the people who reside in that vicinity had better look out for their swine.

An old copy of the New York Organ,
a paper devoted to morality, education,
temperance and pure literature, was brought to this office yesterday by G.
W. Hull, who found it while tearing down the Jackson house. The Organ
bore the date of October 27, 1849. It was a sixteen page paper in magazine
form and the typographical appearance
looked excellent.

Joseph P. Greaves, manager of the Hotel Alcazar in St. Augustine, has returned to that city from a two weeks'
hunting and fishing expedition at Summer Haven, with several of his friends.
Mr. Greaves, with his force, is now busily engaged getting that popular hostelry in readiness for the opening, which will occur on Saturday, Dec. 9. The Alcazar hotel opening practically marks the beginning of the tourist season in St.
Augustine.

Pathetic, Pungent, Pointed and Philosophical—People's Peculiarities Pleasantly and Practically Portrayed.

ALL ALONG THE EAST COAST...

Frightened By Motor Boat.

A team owned by Geo. Poppell caused considerable excitement opposite the Halifax River Yacht Club, Saturday afternoon, tearing away from its moorings and breaking the shafts from the buggy in a short but spirited runaway.
The horse became startled by the
pulling of the engine in Harry Thomp-
son's motor boat.

Got the Tea and the Lady.

Disraeli was in love with a widow, Mrs. Wyndham Lewis. One day, when he went to call, the lady, sitting by the window, saw him approaching and ordered the servant to say that she was not at home. When the maid reached the hall the statesman was hanging up his overcoat.
"Mrs. Lewis, sir, is not at home,"
said the flustered maid.
"I did not ask Mrs. Lewis," was the calm, statesmanlike reply.
"But I don't know when she will be
back," urged the maid.
"Neither do I," philosophically replied Disraeli, "but I am going to wait till she comes back, so please make me
a cup of tea."
He did wait, he got his tea, and he
married the widow.

Why the Table Knife Was Rounded.

Table knives until the seventeenth
century always had sharply pointed blades, a natural survival from the days when a knife was at once a dagger, hunting knife and table knife and fork combined. The rounded end was introduced from France. It happened
that Cardinal Richelieu was compelled to entertain at his table Chancellor Seguier, a man of rude manners, who
at the close of the meal proceeded to use his knife as a toothpick. This so upset the cardinal that he ordered the end of every knife in his possession to be rounded, and so great was Richelieu's influence that the fashion was adopted all over the country.

Travel in the Old Days.

Before the days of the railroad travelers from Philadelphia to New York went by wagon. The following old advertisement outlines the process: "John Butler, with his wagon, sets out on Mondays from his house at the Sign of the Death of the Fox, in Strawberry alley, and drives the same day to Trenton ferry, where Francis Holman meets him and proceeds on Tuesday to Brunswick, and the passengers and goods being shifted into the wagon of Isaac Fitzrandolph, he takes them to the New Blazing Star, where Rubin Fitzran-dolph, with a boat well suited, will meet them and take them to New York that night."

Willie's Reformation.

"Your son Willie seems to have got over being round shouldered. Every time I've seen him lately he's been standing up like a man."
"Yes; after years of scolding him for his stooping I tried a new plan."
"What was it?"
"I told him he had a magnificent
chest." Newark News.

The Open Fireplace.

I have seen respectability and ambition grouped over the air tight stove.
I have seen virtue and intelligence hovering over the register, but I have never seen true happiness in a family circle where the faces were not illuminated by the blaze of an open fireplace.
O. W. Holmes.

Diplomacy.

Mamma—I hope Willie didn't tell a fib when you found he had been at the jam. Aunt Jane—Not at all! When I discovered that somebody had been at the jam he looked at Fido and said, "I didn't know, auntie, that dogs liked jam."—Boston Transcript.
